Additional Information Related to a Professional Status:

The levels of academic degrees are supposed to differentiate the professional status.

- Graduates with bachelor's degree: occupational therapists
- Graduates with associate degree: occupational therapy assistants

Both are simply called as "occupational therapists," regardless of the degree obtained.

- Diagram illustrating a sequence of operations on a stack. The stack initially contains 'e', 'se', and 'se'. Operations include 'tf', 'tftf', 'tfs', 'tf', 'tf', 'tfs', 'e', 'tf', 'U', and 's'. The stack grows and shrinks as operations are performed, with some elements being removed. The final stack contains 'e', 'se', and 'se'.
